

The 3rd International Developmental Pediatrics Association Congress
Transdisciplinary
Intervention: Ideas in Action
December 9-12, 2019 Manila, Philippines

The Western Cape Forum of Intellectual Disability (WCFID) was represented by Rebecca Johns at the IDPA Congress held in Manila, Philippines in December 2019.

The invitation to present at the Congress acknowledges the WCFID's Sexuality and Intellectual Disability Programme and serves as a reminder of Rebecca's significant role in: training staff of WCFID member organisations; her development of resource material for this training and confirms her prowess as a speaker.

Rebecca L. Johns, MEd, BPsych Specialist in Disability and Sexuality education (South Africa)

Rebecca L Johns is a resource development and sexuality education facilitator and trainer at the Western Cape Forum for Intellectual Disability (WCFID) in Cape Town, South Africa. She trains educators and health professionals to facilitate sexuality education with children and adults with intellectual disability. She is also a registered counselor in private practice working with young adults with Intellectual Disability and their families. Her advocacy in sexuality education has also led her to co-author a sexuality education manual/toolkit with distinguished authors Paul Chappell and Jill Hanass-Hancock entitled: Breaking the silence and closing the gap: accommodating young people with disabilities in sexuality education.
